

“Baltic Sea World Heritage” - Picture database

Please register at first below „Registration”. With your participation you comply with the eligibility requirements. Upload up to 3 pictures to the competitions database and give full particulars mentioned in the eligibility requirements (instructions/ database use). Pictures of inappropriate nature or such infringing on a right will be removed.

Search through your local hard disk for the desired picture. Click “Upload” to transfer the picture to the server. Please be patient, the browser will respond after the picture has been transferred completely. The duration of the upload is dependent upon the size of the file and the speed of your internet connection.

By submitting a picture, the participant acknowledges that he or she holds all rights to the submitted picture, has the unlimited right to use all parts of the picture and that no rights are held by third parties and that, in cases where individuals are shown, no individual rights are infringed upon. You will be hold to account for any costs that accrue through unauthorised publishing. You can specify the terms of use for your own picture under “Copyright”.

Your submission on this site should be in English language. Please use the Tab “Translate” to add information in other languages.

Terms of use - Options:

The picture is subject to unrestricted copyright of the author. After the "Creative Commons guidelines" (Attribution - no commercial use - Share under same conditions) it can be used freely and unrestricted for charitable purposes, publications in scientific papers as well as for research and teaching worldwide. The use for commercial and advertising purposes is permitted only with permission by the author.

The image has been approved for unrestricted use (public domain). It can be (without attribution) arbitrarily disseminated, used commercially and be changed, in accordance with national law.

The picture is released for unrestricted perpetual use by anyone worldwide under the condition of appropriate attribution of authorship (i.e. in the caption). The image may not be used without prior written permission of the copyright holder. According to the planned use of license fees can be levied optional.

The terms of use are arising entirely from the following text.